Commissioner for Patents

Please disregard the Advisory Action mailed on 2/4/2008. The advisory was sent in response to amendments and remarks received on 1/10/2008. However at time of receiving the amendments and remarks, the Examiner did not notice that the correspondence was related to a different application (09821584) with the same assignee (IBM), even though the related correspondence was processed for the current application. The Examiner is unsure if applicant inadvertently submitted correspondence for the different application or if the office inadvertently misprocessed the correspondence. Nevertheless, applicant should disregard the advisory action. The current status of this application is awaiting a decision on applicant's petition to withdraw the finality of the Final Rejection mailed 1/3/2008.
